The God who cares. Do we really know how much God does care?
Matthew 6:26 Behold the fowls of the air, for they sow not neither do they reap. Nor gather into barns: yet your heavenly father feedeth them. In verse 28 Why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field. How they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin. Verse 29 Yet I say unto you, that even Solomon in all His glory was not arrayed like one of these.

Even the world we live in, how much does he care for it? We can drive through the mountains and see flowers we never planted. All kinds of trees turning green to make the world look beautiful Sometimes we think God forgot about us, but He didn't. He did all this just for you and me. He did it to brighten our day when everything else seems so wrong. The work of God's hand did it all. And you are part of that work. Psalms 24:1 David said, the earth is the lord's and the fullness thereof, and those who dwell therein. But there is something different about you and me than the trees, flowers, animal, birds and all creation.

God's hand did it all. And you are part of that work. Psalms 24:1 David said, the earth is the lord's and the fullness thereof, and those who dwell therein. But there is something different about you and me than the trees, flowers, animal, birds and all creation.

We have been made in His own Image. Gen. 1:27 So God created man in His own image, in the image of God created He him, male and female created He them.

So when things seem to be not right, and everything is wrong, just stop and look around. You are special! You are somebody made in God's own image. Get up, Cheer up, and stand up, God does care for you. He knows your need. Your every hurt, your every tear. He knows when everyone else lets you down. As He cares about the world, trees, flowers, birds. How much more does He love and care for you.

YOUR SPECIAL

Forest Gump and St. Peter

When Forest Gump died, he stood in front of St. Peter at the Pearly Gates. St. Peter said, “Welcome Forest. We’ve heard a lot about you.” he continued, “Unfortunately, it’s getting pretty crowded up here and we find that we now have to give people an entrance examination before we let them in.” “Okay” said Forest. “I hope it’s not too hard. I’ve already been through a test. My momma used to say, “Life is like a final exam. It’s hard.” Yes Forest. I know. But this test is only three questions. Here they are.” 1) Which two days of the week begin with the letter T ?” 2) How many seconds are in a year? 3) What is God’s first name? “Well sir”, said Forest, “The first is easy. Which two days of the week begin with the letter “T” Today and Tomorrow.” St. Peter looked surprised and said, “Well, that wasn’t the answer I was looking for, but you have a point. I give you credit for that answer.” “Then next question,” said Forest, “How many seconds are in a year? Twelve.” “Twelve?” said St. Peter, surprised and confused. “Yes sir. January 2nd, February 2nd, March 2nd”.... St. Peter interrupted him. “I see what you mean. I’ll have to give you credit for that one too.” “And the last question,” said Forest, “What is God’s first name? It’s Andy.” “Andy? Said St. Peter in shock. “How did you come up with “Andy”? “I learned it in church. We used to sing about it.” Forest broke into song. “Andy walks with me, Andy talks with me, Andy tells me I am His own.” St. Peter opened the gate to heaven and said, “Run Forest, Run!”

The One I could not See

I saw a small, old church house on my journey home today. The door was standing open, so I went inside to pray. There was no one else inside it, at least not that I could see. Yet I felt another presence kneeling there next to me. I shared my burden with Him, for I 'carried such a load. I knew that He was listening, as each word to Him I told. As I rose to leave the building, peace enveloped me, so sweet, For the burdens I'd brought with me, I left there at Jesus' feet. I continued on my journey, knowing I'd gained victory. For my burdens had been lifted-by the One I could not see.

You will show me the path to life, abounding joy in Your presence, the delights at Your right hand forever.

Psalms 16:11

Faith Step:

"Live as people worthy of the call you receive from god. Conduct yourselves with all humility, gentleness, and patience. Accept each other with love."

Ephesians 4:1-2

If you have not received that gift of eternal life with Him, then pray this short prayer to the One who gave us victory over death through Jesus Christ.

I know that I am a sinner and need your forgiveness. I believe that Jesus Christ died for my sins. I am willing to turn from my sins. I now invite Jesus Christ to come into my heart and life as my personal Savior. I will confess you before men, study your Word and live according to your will as you guide me. Thank you for sending Jesus so that I might have eternal life.

Your word says in Romans 10:9-10 "That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised Him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness. And with the mouth Confession is made unto salvation.

Amen
